

PRESS ARTICLE

As published in:

The Buffalo Criterion, Vol.81-No.9 Sat.

March 4-10, 2006

KNUCKLE CITY SEEKS SPONSORS FOR FILM PROJECT

Knuckle City Films hosted a Sponsorship event March 2nd, at The Squeaky Wheel Film Center, 712 Main Street. The fundraiser goes to benefit the upcoming documentary film, "The Forgotten City": The Truth About Buffalo, New York.

As the film nears completion, an appeal for community sponsors is still needed. Sponsor levels are: Silver $100.00, Gold $250.00, and Platinum $500.00. Checks can be made payable to Knuckle City Films, 511 Michigan, or visit the website at www.knucklecityfilms.com. Knuckle City founders are Addison Henderson, who is the son of Bishop and Sister William Henderson, leaders of El Bethel Mission, the former Michigan Avenue Baptist Church, a former Underground Railroad site, and historic landmark; and Marcos Delatore.

Teaming with Addison and Marcos is filmmaking new comer, Korey Green. Plans are in the making for May 2006 completion and show opening. Look for more on the documentary in the coming weeks. Keep up the good work, Brother Addison.

www.knucklecityfilms.com

info@knucklecityfilms.com